

Nashville School Anexo Valle de Ángeles (NSV)

Grammar Worksheet

Mr. Carlos Morazán carlos.morazan@nashvilleschool.edu.hn

Subject Complements and Prepositional Phrases

- Use the PPT about subject complements to aid yourself in any case you have any doubt.
- Solve everything in PENCIL.
- Put your name on it.
- Solve everything even if you are unsure about the answer, what is important is that you answer, back to school we will check these exercises.
- If you can print this worksheet and paste it on your notebook, if not copy every exercise with their respective instructions on your notebook.
- My e-mail address is provided above for any inquiry.

I. Identifying Predicate Nominatives

Identify the predicate nominatives or nominatives by underlining them in each of the following sentences.

1. Before becoming a writer, Heinlein was a naval officer and an engineer.
2. Many of Heinlein's "future history" stories have become classics.
3. Heinlein's novels for young people and adults remain top sellers.
4. Published in 1961, Stranger in a Strange Land is a novel still enjoyed by many readers.
5. Heinlein was the winner of several Hugo Awards for his writings.

II. Identifying Predicate Adjectives

Identify the predicate adjective or adjectives by underlining them in each of the following sentences.

1. The great stone dogs that guard the entrance to Chinatown look a bit frightening.
2. The streets that are crowded, colorful, and full of bustling activities.
3. The special foods at the tearooms and restaurants smell wonderful.
4. To an outsider, the mixture of Chinese and English languages sounds both mysterious and exciting.
5. The art at the Chinese Culture Center is impressive.

III. Identifying Adjective Phrases

Each of the following sentences contains two adjective phrases. Identify each adjective phrase and the word it modifies.

1. Mike's Sister Tanya, a real terror with a whale of a temper, shouts "Beans!" whenever something goes wrong.
2. Some words and phrases for the Greek expressions of anger have their origin in Latin or Greek.
3. Many of us in English class wanted to discuss how people express their annoyance.
4. Imagine what would happen if everybody with a bad temper in the city had a bad day.
5. We agreed that the best thing to do is to avoid people with chips on their shoulders.

IV. Identifying Adverb Phrase

In each of the following sentences, identify the adverb phrase and the word or words it modifies.

1. The Bali Hai Restaurant has opened across the road.
2. The food is fantastic beyond belief.
3. Almost everyone has gone to the new place.
4. At the Bali Hai you can eat exotic food.
5. None of the items on the menu are too expensive for most people.

