

Nashville School Anexo Valle de Ángeles (NSV)

Grammar Worksheet

Mr. Carlos Morazán carlos.morazan@nashvilleschool.edu.hn

Appositives and Appositives Phrases

- Use notebook annotations about Appositives to aid yourself in any case you have any doubt.
- Solve everything in PENCIL.
- Put your name on it.
- Solve everything even if you are unsure about the answer, what is important is that you answer, back to school we will check these exercises.
- If you can; print this worksheet and paste it on your notebook, if not copy every exercise with their respective instructions on your notebook.
- My e-mail address is provided above for any inquiry.

I. Identifying Appositives and Appositives Phrases

Identify appositives or appositives phrases in the following phrases. Give the word or words each appositive or appositive phrase identifies or explains.

1. Tacos, tamales, and fajitas, some of the most popular Mexican dishes, are served here.
2. This color, midnight blue, is just what I've been looking for.
3. Two men, a truck driver and a sailor, helped my father push the car off the road.
4. I'll have a sandwich, tuna salad on rye bread, please.
5. Miguel has the same class, American history, this afternoon.
6. Barbara Jordan, one of my heroes, has been an important figure in both civil and human rights.
7. Shelley asked everyone where her friend Bianca had gone.
8. Somebody reported the hazard, a pile of trash containing broken glass, to the police.
9. Be sure to bring the exact change, fifty cents.
10. They sang the song "I've Been Working on the Railroad" over and over all the way down the path.